DFO 89-43, Serial 9989

Exemptions claimed

This February 9, 1977, memorandum first withholds the name of the agent who wrote the memo to Dallas SAC, next it withholds the name of the FBI official of the San Antonio Division who furnished information, and next it withholds even the identification of the residency. For what? For what without doubt was a major story in every area newspaper, "examination of the $486,000 in currency, which was recently seized in the possession of two juveniles, by the (obliterated) Police Department." No exemptions are claimed opposite the various obliterations but there is a notation of (b)(7)(C) at the top of the page
